UFELESS MARKET NEARLY ALL DAY

peculators Still Waiting to See Outcome of United States Steel Dividend.

ELAY IN SETTLEMENT OF TARIFF ALSO FIGURES

While Trade Outlook Is Excellent, Activity Depends Upon Contingencies.

NEW YORK, July 26 -The stock marwas stagnant today. There was a od of slight activity after the openand some attrring towards the close. he speculative contingent seemed detersined to await the outcome of the United tates Steel dividend meeting, which is of expected to begin until after the marst has closed tomorrow. The indications further delay in the adjustment of the riff controversy at Washington seemed have some effect in discouraging any civity in the market. More interest om a speculative standpoint centers at messent in the corn crop than in any ther, and the helpful weather conditions here a beneficial factor for values.
Trade news of steel was good and ininded an announcement that the consimplated advance in prices of wire would enforced in August, instead of at the eginning of the year, as at first conmplated. The raising of prices of bars and shapes by the United States Steel orporation is to expected to occur at he same time. United States Steel alled to benefit from this trade news or form a suggestion, which found currency a limited speculative circle, that tocorrow's dividend might be made at 3 or cent as a compromise between the resent rate and the 4 per cent rate, which some of the speculative buyers had oped for. The price was run down to H, but met support at about 70 Amalgamated Copper was unfavorably effected by the renewed decline in coper metal in the London market, and the art thus aroused that the recent recovry in the price had been manipulative

There is some growth in the supply of oercantile paper as the season advances, is expected that large lines of castern aper neid by western banks on account of scanty supplies in their own locality will run to maturity as the demand for rop funds develops and renewals of these nesses were steady. Tatel sales for exspeculative contingent seemed deterged to await the outcome of the United

WEAKNESS OF GRAIN CLEARLY APPARENT

ized; Corn and Oats Follow Downward Path.

CHICAGO, July 26.—Weakness bordering on demoralization prevailed in the wheat pit during the greater part of the day, and the market was subjected to a great amount of stop-loss selling and renewed profit-taking by minor holders.

There was a fair bulge following an opening decline of $\frac{1}{2}\text{off}$ to $\frac{1}{2}\text{c}$, owing to covering by shorts, prompted by an official forecast for unsettled weather in sections of the winter wheat belt for tomorrow but the advance only served to bring out additional sales, resulting in still greater weakness. The primary cause of the selling pressure was the extremely liberal receipts of new wheat here and at St. Louis and Kansas City. Arrivals here today were $50 cars, or nearly 200 in excess of the official estimate, while at the two southwestern centers more than $1,000,000 bushels were received. Talk of receipts tomorrow of more than 1000 carloads was one of the depressing factors during the last half of the day.

During the day July sold between $1.05\frac{1}{2}\text{ and $$1.03\frac{1}{2}\text{ and $$1.03\frac{1}{2}\text{ and $$1.04\frac{1}{2}\text{ of the corn belt removed at $$1.04\frac{1}{2}\text{ of the corn belt removed all anxiety concerning the new crop and inspired general selling, which resulted in declines of from $\frac{1}{2}\text{ to $2\text{ c}\text{ compared with Saturday's close. The market closed very weak and near the low point of the day, at net declines of $$1\text{ in the price of the cash grain, and predictions of greatly increased receipts within a few days, caused weakness in oats. The market closed weakness

James A. Pollock & Co., bankers and brokers, furnish the following, received over their private wire yesterday afternoon.

Logan Cotton Letter—New York—Without material change in the weather conditions over Sunday, the market was disposed to show a softer undertone today, on the theory that a period of liquidation and cleaning up of cotton would be indulged in during the week. A prominent Beaver street speculator was out with a statement of crop condition of 68, or a decline of 66 for the month. 17 points poerer than the crop condition report which was issued this date last year. It was also rumored that the National Ginner's figures were but slightly better than those. Both of these documents would be considered very bullish and would be immediately reflected in the market were it not for the fact that there is a sub-latent idea among the professional crowd in cotton that the month of July might show an improvement and not a decline in condition, and that any advance that was predicted on the theory of the government confirming these figures might be lost in the disappointment at larger figures. The lowest August figures of condition in the past twenty years by the agricultural department were those of 1905, when a condition or 94.9 lifted the market from the level of 750 to 8 cents in midsummer to the 12-cent level by the following December. This crop, because of its lateness, is much less able to stand so low a condition or so poor prospect and then expect any recovery during the next sixty days. Our Mr. Porter predicts the loss of 1,000,000 bales from one state. No one in the trade can name a state that will raise more than last year, except Oklahoma, without meeting a wave of protest from the states in question. A crop condition of as low as in 1905 would be very bullish in itself, and it is useless to expect a crop 1,000,000 bales smaller than last year to sell as low as last year's crop now is with the energy the trade conditions of the world are exhibiting. The market may, from a professional atandpoint

BUSINESS IS QUIET ON PRODUCE MARKET

ness Is Suffered by the Dealers.

The beginning of the week duliness was evident on the local produce market Monday. A shipment of fresh fruit and vegetables was received from California, and also a consignment of garden truck from Davis county. Today the dealers are expecting a shipment of cantaloupes from Moapa, Nev.

Cantaloupes were very plentiful Monday and dealers offered the fruit at prices ranging all the way from 5 to 20 cents each. Watermelons were plentiful and a fairly good meion could be obtained for 45 to 50 cents. Within the next couple of weeks watermelons will be at their best.

Tomatoes are now coming in freely from Davis county and the coast and housewives contemplating putting up a winter supply of the fruit will do well to do so within the next few weeks. Green tomatoes are not very plentiful thus far and dealers are offering the vegetable at advanced prices.
